

Sample Norms

- We value trust and act with trustworthiness toward one another.
- Each member of the school works to understand others before trying to be understood.
- We do not make assumptions about what we see. We ask each other for clarification.
- We do not talk behind each other's backs. There will be no cross-talk in open meetings.
- We respect one another.
- We will remember that there is no such thing as failure; there are only results.
- There are win-win solutions to every problem. We will find them by working together.
- Our commitment is to help every student succeed. All of our actions are focused on this commitment.

